1       The Court, at Plaintiff's request, previously set the 2 hearing regarding the judgment debtor examination of Defendant
3 in this case for February 25, 2013. At the time, Defendant was 4 proceeding in pro se. However, Plaintiff's counsel received a 5 voicemail yesterday from an attorney who said that Defendant had 6 just retained his firm to represent Defendant in these 7 proceedings. The attorney stated that he will be out of town
8 the rest of this week, and requested Plaintiff's counsel to 9 take the judgment debtor examination off calendar, to be re-set, 10 if necessary, after he (Defendant's new attorney) had the 11 opportunity to get familiar with the file. Plaintiff's counsel
12 agrees to the request.

13       Accordingly, Plaintiff's counsel requests the Court to take 14 the February 25 hearing regarding the judgment debtor examination 15 off calendar. Plaintiff's counsel will, if necessary, inform the 16 Court if a hearing regarding a judgment debtor examination should 17 need to be placed back on calendar.

18 DATED: February 21, 2013.       Respectfully submitted,
